Description

This cosy house is the ideal home for animal and nature lovers. A stone's throw from the Silsom forest and with views of the fields.

On entering, one immediately notices the high, open hallway. The living room is bright and has a cosy stove as well as an open view of the garden.

The kitchen has been completely renovated and adds to the charm of the house.

Furthermore, on the ground floor we find a spacious bathroom, an office/bedroom and an indoor garage.

On the first floor are 2 very spacious bedrooms, a dressing room and a storage room/loft.

The house offers various possibilities.

An additional asset is the proximity of a train station within walking distance.

No asbestos!
